with Silver, went to the House of an eminent Phyabout three o'Clock in the Afternoon, and desir'd to speak with the Doctor, when upon seeing him, said that he lately arriv'd here on his Travels, was inform'd that he was of his Name, and came to wait upon the Doctor ask'd him in to Dinner, which over, and all the Family except his Lady re-having entertain'd them with his Travels, he it was the Custom in the North of England and to land, for the Ladies to retire when Dinner was and had taken a Glass or two of Wine; but the not stirring, he said that in his Travels from on he was met by some Collectors on the Road, took from him all the Money he had, and it be of the utmost Service if the Doctor would himself; but being told it was not in his Power, he desir'd it a second Time, and having received the same Answer, he put his Hand to his Pocket, looking sternly, swore he must have it. The being near the Bell-rope pull'd it, and one of servants came in, before whom he had the Imputo swear he must be supply'd; but the Servant order'd not to stir, but to knock and call his servants, the pretended Gentleman thought to take his Hat and Cane, and got off unpur-su'd.

Dr. ROBERT EATON'S
BALSAMICK STYPTICK.
Truly prepared and sold at the Doctor's late Dwelling House, now Mr. DUTTON's in Salisbury Court, Fleet-street.

THIS Medicine restrains in a most surprising Manner, all internal as well as external Hemorrhages, i. e. it infallibly and quickly stops all dangerous Bleedings at the Nose or Gums, spitting or vomiting Blood; also the immoderate Flux of the Hemorrhoids or Menes; bloody Urine or Stools, bleeding of large Wounds, &c. (it used according to the plain Directions given with it) as will appear by the Certificates of several Eminent Physicians, and in the large Account of this Medicine, written by the Doctor himself, and dedicated to the College of Physicians, a little before his Death.

It keeps good for many Years, at Sea or on Shore, at Home or Abroad, i. e. in all Climates, therefore must be universally Useful.

The Doctor not only obtained his Majesty's Letters Patent for the sole Vending of this most Excellent Medicine; but also a Clause in a late Act of Parliament, exempting this Medicine from the Inspection of the Councils of the College of Physicians, to which all other Medicines are liable.

N. B. Some of the Apothecaries prepare a Styptic from a Prescription of Helvetius, and use it in the Room of Dr. Eaton's; but whoever tries both, will soon be persuaded that Our's exceeds theirs in all Respects, in a most eminent Degree.
